

Indiana fireworks laws

Indiana has four main laws regarding consumer use of fireworks:

- You must be 18 or older to purchase fireworks.
- An adult must be present for children to use any kind of fireworks.
- Use of fireworks is limited to your own property, the property of someone who has approved your use of fireworks or a location designated specifically for the use of fireworks.
- Fireworks are allowed from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. year-round and from 9 a.m. to midnight on Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day and New Year's Eve unless a local ordinance specifies otherwise. Many local ordinances specify otherwise.

- Pittsboro

- Fireworks are allowed in Pittsboro all year long from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. Other restrictions limit fireworks from 5 p.m. to two hours after sunset June 29-July 3 and July 5-9. They are allowed from 10 a.m. to midnight on July 4 and from 10 a.m. Dec. 31 to 1 a.m. Jan. 1.
